

Quek Leng Chan
MalaysianBiz.my
March 4, 2016
By Melissa Tan

Top Banker in Malaysia

He was the co-founder of Hong Leong Group Malaysia, one of the major banks in Malaysia. Tan Sri Quek Leng Chan is the third richest man in the country. The company has strong presence across the region where it operates mostly in Malaysia, Singapore and Hong Kong.

Tan Sri Quek is the chairman and CEO of Hong Leong Company Berhad while he holds leadership positions in Guocoland and Camerlin Group which run businesses in other sectors like real estate, manufacturing and most notably, in financial services. He mostly handles the business operations in Malaysia while the Singapore counterpart is managed by Kwek Leng Beng who is his cousin.

Tan Sri Quek's Net Worth

$5.3 Billion

Age

74

Source Of Wealth

Tan Sri Quek is mostly involved in the banking and real estate sectors which contribute mainly to his wealth.

Residence

Quek resides in Kuala Lumpur but is known to travel to other parts of the world including spending a lot of time in the United Kingdom.

Citizenship

Malaysia

Marital Status

Tan Sri Quek is married to Yap Suan Leng who was a former television presenter. Together they have 2 sons and 1 daughter.

Children

Tan Sri Quek's youngest son Quek Kon Sean is most prominent among the 3 and who is currently an executive director in the financial arm of the group. Besides that, he is known to have started an online shopping business as well. His daughter, Quek Sue Yia recently married a Korean businessman.

Education

Quek graduated from Singapore's Victoria School and is a Barrister-at-Law from UK's Middle Temple.

Copyright 1998 - 2015. All Rights Reserved.

Source: <http://www.malaysianbiz.my/quek-leng-chan.html>