KUALA LUMPUR, PKR Youth chief Nik Nazmi Nik Ahmad had no right to criticise Umno Youth chief Khairy Jamaluddin, said Nadim Gulam Rasul from Parti Ikatan Bangsa Malaysia.

He said Nik Nazmi should look at himself first before pointing fingers at Khairy, as both PKR and Umno were equally responsible in creating racial tension by constant bickering between both the parties.

Nik Nazmi had recently "advised" Khairy to be a television star, on grounds that the Umno Youth chief and other youth leaders in the party had failed to show any moral improvements.

Nik Nazmi also rapped Khairy for failing to overcome worsening racial issues.

The PKR Youth chief predicted that Umno would fall and advised Khairy to seek a new future by being a television star.

The Seri Setia state assemblyman was also quoted as saying by the media that: "They (Umno Youth) had many times proven that they are unable to show any form of moral improvements in their leadership.

"Just look at their chief (Khairy) who is so-called moderate and liberal. He is, however, loyal to Umno and its president (Datuk Seri Najib Razak) who is embroiled in scandals and controversies," said Nik Nazmi.

Nadim, who is Ikatan Youth chief said Khairy had done nothing wrong in standing by party president Njaib as the latter had not been proven guilty of any wrongdoings.

He added that now was not the time to play the blame game but to come up with solutions to solve the many problems faced by the rakyat.
