KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 10 (Bernama) -- The deeds and services of former Governor of Sarawak, the late Tun Abdul Rahman Ya'kub in developing Sarawak and the nation will always be remembered.

Deputy Prime Minister Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin, who said this, also regarded his passing last night as a major loss to the nation.

Muhyiddin and his family expressed their sadness at the death of Abdul Rahman and hoped his family would be strong in facing the ordeal.

"May the late Abdul Rahman be placed among the pious," he said in a statement, here, Saturday.

Abdul Rahman died at the age of 87 at the Normah Medical Centre in Kuching, Sarawak at 9.30pm Friday night.

His remains would be laid to rest at the Semariang Muslim Cemetery in Kuching, Sarawak after Zohor prayers.
