KUCHING, Oct 26 (Bernama) -- PKR Petra Jaya Branch deputy chief Idris Bohari said today he had resigned from the party with immediate effect over what he alleged to be internal unrest and crises of confidence.

Idris, 52, who had once served as Sarawak PKR executive secretary, said he would devote more time to his family and work with NGOs.

He had contested on the PKR ticket in two general elections and one state election.

Idris said he expected more PKR members to leave the party.
