CYBERJAYA, Nov 3 (Bernama) -- Umno Information Chief Datuk Ahmad Maslan said today Selangor Umno would have to adopt varying approaches on what he identified as three groups of people for the Barisan Nasional (BN) to recapture Selangor in the next general election.

He named these groups as the urban, semi-urban and rural voters.

"Selangor Umno cannot address the three groups in the same way because their lifestyle and the facilities they enjoyed are different," said the deputy finance minister after launching the Innovation Day of the Inland Revenue Board here.

Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak had said that Selangor Umno must be bold in drawing up a new strategy and change the mindset to recapture the state for the BN.

The prime minister had wanted the Selangor Umno Liaison Committee to step up efforts to face the next general election.

Ahmad said Selangor Umno should ensure that federal government aid for the people reached everyone and that no one was left out, and list the weaknesses in the state government administration for rectification.
