KUALA LUMPUR, Jan 7 (Bernama) - Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak returns to work after a rest due to the E.coli bacteria by chairing the Cabinet meeting in Putrajaya Wednesday.

Najib tweeted: ""Alhamdulillah, back to work today. Thanks to everyone, including friends online, for praying for my speedy recovery.

"The main agenda of the Cabinet meeting is to discuss issues related to the floods and efforts to help the flood victims."

Najib also took photograph with several ministers, including Transport Minister Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai and Defence Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Hussein.

He contracted E. coli while touring the flood areas and was advised to take a rest by the doctor.

By 1 pm Wednesday, there are 18,171 flood victims in relief centres in Pahang, 4,771 in Perak and 3,984 in Kelantan.
