KUALA LUMPUR, Oct 10 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak will make a two-day working visit to Indonesia from Sunday.

In a statement, the Foreign Ministry said Najib was scheduled to hold bilateral consultation with President Joko Widodo to further strengthen bilateral cooperation in the palm oil industry.

"This visit will provide the opportunity for both countries to explore and further enhance cooperation towards sustainable palm oil industry.

"Both leaders will also discuss issues pertaining to environmental cooperation," it said.

The visit is a follow-up to the previous two ministerial meetings between Malaysia and Indonesia, held on Aug 27 in Kuala Lumpur and Oct 3 in Jakarta.

The prime minister will be accompanied by his wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, Plantation Industries and Commodities Minister Datuk Amar Douglas Uggah Embas, Natural Resources and Environment Minister Datuk Seri Dr Wan Junaidi Tuanku Jaafar, Deputy Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Razali Ibrahim and government officials.
