PORT KLANG, Oct 10 (Bernama) -- PKR deputy president Mohamed Azmin Ali believes that the party will continue to receive cooperation from PAS even though the Islamic party is not joining the new opposition coalition, Pakatan Harapan.

The Selangor Menteri Besar said PKR would cooperate with any party that has the same agenda, including PAS.

"PKR wants to work with PAS, Amanah (Parti Amanah Negara), DAP and I believe that DAP, PAS and Amanah can work together in the future.

"We, as leaders, must have the courage to admit that we do not have all the answers and we must work together with all the parties and civil societies," he told a press conference after launching Phase 3C of the Pulau Indah Industrial Park, here today.

Pakatan Harapan, comprises of PKR, DAP, and Amanah, was launched on Sept 22 to replace Pakatan Rakyat following the clash between PAS and DAP over the implementation of hudud in Kelantan.
