The National Audit Department is expected to release the final report related to its 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB) probe in three to four months.

Its deputy director R. Raja Sunthara Kannan said as the audit report was based on facts and evidence, therefore, it should be carefully prepared.

He said this while replying to a question from a participant at the Seminar on Sustainable Integrity in Kuala Lumpur today.

The seminar was organised by the Malaysian Anti-Corruption Academy and the Farmers Organisation Authority.

The National Audit Department had previously released an interim report related to 1MDB. – Bernama, October 13, 2015.
