Pakatan Harapan will file its no-confidence motion against the Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Razak, despite Dewan Rakyat Speaker Tan Sri Pandikar Amin Mulia telling the opposition earlier it may not see the light of day at the current Parliament sitting, which ends on December 3.

Opposition leader Datuk Seri Dr Wan Azizah Wan Ismail (PKR-Permatang Pauh) said she would go ahead and file the motion under Standing Order 26.

"I will file the motion soonest possible and the media will be informed (when the time comes)," she told reporters at the Parliament lobby after meeting Pandikar in his office today.

Earlier this morning, Pandikar had said motions filed under Standing Orders 26 and 27 needed to be submitted 14 days before the start of a Parliament sitting.

The current meeting, the last for the year, began yesterday.

"I want to remind Permatang Pauh if she wants to go ahead with this motion and if the motion fulfilled Standing Orders 26 and 27, even if it is accepted, it will only be at the next meeting and not this meeting," Pandikar said earlier today.

Parliament will sit again next year in March. – October 20, 2015.
