An opposition lawmaker has urged all MPs to vote against the budget to be tabled tomorrow, saying it will be an opportunity to express their disapproval of the present leadership.

Kuala Terengganu MP Datuk Raja Kamarul Bahrin Raja Ahmad also said the nation needed brave and honourable men to step forward to save it from financial ruin and racial and religious turmoil.

He added that the unprecedented move by the Conference of Malay Rulers urging the government to urgently resolve issues over debt-ridden state fund 1Malaysia Development Bhd (1MDB) was a sign of Malaysia's grave situation.

"We have seen many good men in the past who stood up against the leadership and now even the Malay rulers have spoken up.

"Now is the turn of all parliamentarians, regardless from Barisan Nasional or the opposition, to show our commitment to save the nation to vote down the budget as a sign of disapproval," Raja Bahrin told reporters at the Parliament lobby.

"Tomorrow is the moment to start it in Parliament or we may be facing a long, bleak and hazy future.

"We need honourable and brave leaders to come forward for the nation." – October 22, 2015.
