DAP insists that Public Accounts Committee (PAC) member Tony Pua is not prohibited by any gag order from talking about troubled 1Malaysia Development Bhd (1MDB), despite the speaker's refusal to explicitly state if the opposition lawmaker was barred from making any public statements.

"The speaker (Tan Sri Pandikar Amin Mulia) has stressed there is no gag order on Pua whether it is on the 1MDB debate or to issue statements outside the Dewan Rakyat," said DAP secretary-general Lim Guan Eng.

"And this is confirmed by the speaker himself in the Dewan. So what's confirmed is, there is no gag order on Pua," he said at a press conference at the Parliament lobby today. – November 4, 2015.
