ANTALYA (Turkey), Nov 15 (Bernama) -- Malaysian Prime Minister's wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor Sunday attended the Business-20 (B20) and Women-20 (W20) Turkey Summits held in conjunction with the Group of 20 (G20) Summit here.

Among the session participated by Rosmah was the discussion chaired by wife of Turkish president, Emine Erdogan, on the critical crisis concerning Syrian refugees and the roles played by Turkey, including in providing tents, food and other necessities for the asylum seekers.

Turkey has so far taken 2.2 million refugees who were treated as state guests.

The summits were also attended by wives of leaders from Indonesia, South Africa, Azerbaijan and Zimbabwe.

Apart from the refugees issues, the participants at both summits also condemned the Paris attacks that left over 120 people dead.
