MIRI, Dec 17 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi will be visiting Miri for two days beginning tomorrow.

Upon arriving here at 9.30 am, he will board a helicopter to Long Bemang to meet with the local community, according to a schedule issued by the Information Department.

In the afternoon, he will head to Rumah Hillary Jungang in Nanga Ajoin, Tinjar before launching the Masjid Kampung Keluru Jaya, Lambir construction project at 3.15 pm.

The deputy prime minister will attend a dinner at Miri Marriot Resort and Spa, organised in conjunction with his visit.

The following day he will launch the Immigration Day 2015 celebration at the same venue.

Sarawak Chief Minister Tan Sri Adenan Satem is also expected to attend.
