KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 19 (Bernama) -- Barely hours after returning from the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) summit in Manila, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak Thursday headed to the Kuala Lumpur Convention Centre (KLCC) to make a final inspection on the preparations for the 27th Asean Summit and Related Summits.

The prime minister spent about three hours inspecting the main venue of the summits in making sure that the KLCC would be in top notch condition to host the summits.

After he arrived at 8.15pm, Najib went for a closed-door food tasting demonstration by the KLCC chefs, before making his way to inspect the related venues that will be hosting the high-profile meetings.

Later, he was joined by his wife Datin Seri Rosmah Mansor, Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi and Foreign Minister Datuk Anifah Aman to watch a full dress rehearsal for the summits' gala dinner.

In a brief speech after the rehearsal, Najib congratulated the performers for displaying highly entertaining and quality performances.

"I am confident all the Heads of State and Heads of Government will be enthralled with the performances," he said.
