KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 2 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak wants all ministries and government agencies to focus on efforts to ensure Budget 2016 becomes a reality and brings prosperity to the people.

He was thankful that the Supply Bill 2016 was passed yesterday in the Dewan Rakyat, adding that ministries and government agencies must ensure that their Key Performance Indicators and all necessary planning be readied to implement all government initiatives and programmes under Budget 2016, which begins in January next year.

"The Cabinet Ministers and I will carefully monitor everyone's performance and carry out spot checks on the the implementation of the Budget from time to time," he said in his blog www.najibrazak.com.

Budget 2016 which Najib tabled in the Dewan Rakyat on Oct 23 and debated until Oct 26 allocates RM267.22 billion for government expenditure next year.
