KUALA LUMPUR, Nov 20 (Bernama) -- Traffic in the city came to a standstill after the federal highway from Subang to the city centre was closed since 4 pm today.

Also congested were Jalan Imbi, Jalan Kinabalu and Jalan Sultan Ismail.

According to the City Traffic Police operation room spokesman, the Subang-Kuala Lumpur route on the federal highway was closed to all traffic to make way for the United States (US) President Barack Obama and his entourage who are here for the 27th ASEAN Summit and Related Summits this weekend.

Obama's Air Force One plane touched down at the Royal Malaysian Air Force (RMAF) base in Subang at 3.20 pm.

"The highway remained closed until the US President arrived at the KL Convention Centre," he told Bernama here.

He said all motorists were advised to use alternative roads and to adhere to all instructions to avoid being trapped in traffic congestion.
