KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 5 (Bernama) -- Minister's Assistant for Foreign Affairs of Qatar, Mohammed bin Abdullah bin Mutib Al-Rumaihi will undertake a four-day working visit to Malaysia from Saturday, part of his tour of Southeast Asia.

In a statement, the Foreign Ministry said he was scheduled to meet his Malaysian counterpart, Datuk Seri Reezal Merican Naina Merican and call on International Trade and Industry Minister Datuk Seri Mustapa Mohamad.

It said the visit would provide the opportunity for both sides to discuss bilateral cooperation in various areas such as trade and investment, education, tourism and culture.

"The Dec 5-8 visit is envisaged to strengthen and elevate further Malaysia-Qatar relations," the statement said.
