Umno president Datuk Seri Najib Razak told the party's assembly today that Malaysians should be grateful to the ruling Malay party.

"It would be wonderful if more, not only delegates but all Umno members, or it would be better if all Malaysians, were grateful with the blessings (they have) as a result of the party's struggle," he said in his speech at the party's annual general assembly at the Putra World Trade Centre today.

"In reality, Umno's efforts have changed the living landscape of the Malays and the Bumiputera for the better, in just one generation," he said.

Many of the country's successes were because of Umno, and they "cannot be described with words or counted with numbers," he added.

Najib said it was obvious that Umno, which is the core of the Barisan Nasional government, had shown its ability to take the country to greater heights.

"In the Global Competitive Report 2015 by the World Economic Forum, Malaysia climbed up two spots to 18th from 144 countries in the world economy," he said. – December 10, 2015.
