Umno has opened a formal probe into Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin for a speech he made against president Datuk Seri Najib Razak at a gathering in Kampung Baru, Kuala Lumpur on December 7.

Party secretary-general Datuk Seri Tengku Adnan Tengku Mansor said an investigation had begun and was being pursued by the party's disciplinary board.

"I have already sent (the probe to the board). The investigation paper has been made, we wait for a while," Tengku Adnan told reporters on the sidelines of Umno's annual general assembly today.

He was asked by the media whether Muhyiddin's case had been referred to the disciplinary board for further action.

Yesterday, the party's Supreme Council member Datuk Abdul Rahman Dahlan had said Muhyiddin's actions on Monday could be construed as a breach of party discipline.

Muhyiddin was the featured speaker at the Kampung Baru gathering on Monday night where he asked Najib to take a rest while the authorities finished their probe into 1Malaysia Development Berhad and the RM2.6 billion the president received.

Muhyiddin's presence at the gathering was widely criticised by Umno leaders who felt that such disagreements between the two should be kept behind closed doors. – December 10, 2015.
