KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 14 (Bernama) - Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak said the Malaysian Cyber Games (MCG) can develop the talents of youths to become the best in the world.

"Recently, a Malaysian team made it to the international final of Dota 2 (online game) competition," he said in a posting on his Facebook page today.

Najib congratulated the SatuDuaTiga team which was declared as the Taring (Fang) team who will represent Malaysia in the Dota 2 competition.

Yesterday, he witnessed the presentation of the Malaysia Book of Records (MBOR) for the most number of teams competing in Dota 2 at MCG 2015.

It featured a total of 792 teams.
