KUALA LUMPUR, Dec 21 (Bernama) -- A special flight will be arranged to bring back the bodies of the 13 Malaysians killed in a bus accident yesterday in Thailand, said Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi.

He said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak had given instructions to arrange for the special flight.

"PM has given instructions to arrange for the special flight to bring back the 13 bodies from Chiang Mai. Arrangements are being worked out with Wisma Putra, Mindef (Ministry of Defence) and the Malaysian embassy in Bangkok," he said in a tweet @Zahid_Hamidi.

Thirteen of 22 Malaysians in the bus were confirmed killed in the accident that occurred at 11.30am (12.30pm in Malaysia).

News reports said the bus crashed following an accident with a pickup truck while heading to Chiang Mai from Chiang Rai,
