DENGKIL, Jan 21 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has contributed RM20,000 to Madrasah Tahfiz Al-Redzuan, here, which was gutted by fire last Monday.

The contribution was handed over by Selangor UMNO liaison chief Datuk Seri Noh Omar, on behalf of the prime minister, to the religious school head Ishak Jamil, when Noh visited it in Kampung Dato Ahmad Razali, Thursday.

Noh told reporters that the immediate aid would be used to upgrade the community hall located in front of the school, as temporary accommodation for the 30 students.

The fire outbreak at about 8.15 pm had destroyed the two-storey building which housed the hostel and dining hall. The students were given a week's break following the fire.

Ishak said they were thankful to the prime minister for his contribution which would be put to good use, including buying beds, mattresses and other furniture required.

He said since the fire incident, they had managed to collect RM20,000 from public contributions channelled through the Masjid As-Sharif account.
