KUALA LUMPUR, March 25 (Bernama) - New Petronas (Petroliam Nasional Berhad) adviser Tun Abdullah Ahmad Badawi wants to take Petronas to a higher level.

The former prime minister said he appreciated the appointment and thanked Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak for the trust placed in him.

"I thank the Prime Minister and the Malaysian government on my appointment as Petronas adviser," he said in a statement tonight.

The Cabinet today decided to appoint Abdullah as Petronas adviser, effective April 1, replacing Tun Dr Mahathir Mohamad whose tenure was terminated on March 11.

Mahathir's tenure as Petronas adviser was terminated as he no longer supports the government and thus no longer holds posts linked to the government.
