KUALA LUMPUR, April 4 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi congratulated Malaysia's Khairul Idham Pawi on his victory at the MotoGP World Championship, Argentina Motorcycle Grand Prix early today.

"Congratulations, Khairul Idham Pawi for winning #motoGP3 at Argentina! Thank you for bringing glory to the country," he said on twitter.

The 17-year-old Honda Team Asia rider took 41 minutes and 35.452 seconds to clinch the race at the Termas de Rio Hondo Circuit.

Spaniard Jorge Navarro from the Honda Estrella Galicia 0,0 team and South African Brad Binder (Red Bull KTM Ajo) were placed second and third after clocking 42'1.622s and 42'5.512s respectively.

Another of Malaysia's rider, Adam Norrodin from the Drive M7 SIC Racing Team managed to claim the 11th spot despite a corner crash in the final lap.

With this win, Khairul Idham collected 25 points to reach fourth place while Adam remains at 19th on the scoreboard with five points after the second leg of the competition.
