KUALA LUMPUR, April 7 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today extended greetings to the Telugu community in conjunction with Ugadi or Telugu New Year tomorrow.

Najib said Malaysia is proud to have a large number of Telugus who have worked hard together to drive the nation's economy.

"Tomorrow marks the start of a New Year for the Telugu community around the world. Thank you for the continuous support and contribution. 'Ugadi ubhakanshalu' to you and your family," he said in his latest post on his Facebook account.

There are about 300,000 Telugus in Malaysia who trace their origins to the state of Andhra Pradesh in India.
