Tan Sri Muhyiddin Yassin plans to attend the March 27 gathering organised by former minister Datuk Zaid Ibrahim against the leadership of Datuk Seri Najib Razak.

He said Zaid informed him of the event, which was meant to gather a strong force to protest against the prime minister's leadership.

"We are on the same track here, so I told him InsyaAllah, I will attend," Muhyiddin said.

When asked if he would work with the opposition against Najib, the suspended Umno deputy president said he was willing to work with anyone who had the interests of the country and its people at heart.

"As long as their intention is good, for the betterment of the country and in the interest of the people and they agree there has been wrongdoing by the leadership, I don't care who they are, I will join forces with them," Muhyiddin said.

Zaid said two days ago that the March 27 gathering is gaining momentum with participants crossing political boundaries to join efforts in demanding Najib's resignation as prime minister.

The second resolution of the gathering is to set up a people's tribunal that will enable the public to know the truth about 1Malaysia Development Berhad (1MDB), and the third is to determine what and where the movement is headed with its demand for change.

He also said that key political players had given him their agreement for the gathering, including Dr Mahathir, Muhyiddin and Mukhriz.

Opposition leaders who agreed were PAS's Datuk Husam Musa, Parti Amanah Negara (Amanah) president Mohamad Sabu, PKR deputy president Datuk Seri Mohamed Azmin Ali, PKR secretary-general Rafizi Ramli and DAP parliamentary leader Lim Kit Siang. – March 3, 2016.
