PUTRAJAYA, June 14 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak today accompanied 50 Orang Asli children from the Asrama Darul Falah (ASDAF), Bukit Persekutuan, Kuala Lumpur to buy food for the breaking of the fast in the Ramadan Bazaar at Precinct 3, Putrajaya here.

Najib went round the bazaar together with the Orang Asli children for about half an hour to choose and buy food and drinks for iftar such as 'kuih tepung pelita', roti john, cakes and sugarcane juice.

"Most of them are visiting the Ramadan bazaar and Putrajaya for the first time.

"And this is an opportunity to give some cheers to those who are fasting and far away from their families," he told the media here Tuesday.

Ramadan bazaar patrons also took the opportunity to mingle and take 'selfie' with the Prime Minister.

According to Najib, he learned that the educational progress of the ASDAF children was at a good level.

"Therefore the contribution that I can make to them will hopefully forge a better future," he said.
