KUALA KANGSAR, June 16 (Bernama) -- Malaysia will hold talks with Indonesia and the Philippines this weekend to discuss the best initiative to tackle various threats including kidnappings in the Sulu Sea.

Defence Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein said the talks which were scheduled to be held in Manila, Philippines this Sunday will among others look at the success of the Melaka Straits Patrol (MSP).

"The Defence Ministers of all three countries have already met in Laos two weeks ago and this Sunday, I will go to Manila to see if the MSP could be used in the Sulu Sea," he said.....
