KUALA LUMPUR, May 16 (Bernama) -- The success stories created by many today are the results of their teachers' efforts and dedication to ensure success for each of their students, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

Relating his memories as a student, the prime minister said the teachers were always strict, but their strictness always came with an abundance of love to help shape the students' personalities.

"The student's success is their success, and those who are successful today are the results of efforts taken by their dedicated teachers who always put their students' development and learning process as their top priority.

"In conjunction with Teacher's Day celebration today, and whether we have left the schools for many years or still attending classes, let's appreciate the deeds and sacrifices of our teachers.

"Thank you teachers and Happy Teacher's Day!" he posted in Facebook today.

Teacher's Day is celebrated on May 16 every year.
