SUNGAI BESAR, June 17 (Bernama) -- Religious school graduates are capable of creating success stories in any fields if they were given the chance to take the responsibility.

Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi said this was because religious school graduates would discharge their duties in a responsible and trustworthy manner to attain the good pleasure of Allah.

"I'm also a product of religious school, that is of Sekolah Menengah Agama Izzudin Shah, Ipoh.

"If given the chance, we are capable of discharging our duties in a good and trustworthy manner," he said at the breaking-of-fast event with educators in Sabak Bernam district at Sekolah Menengah Kebangsaan (SMK) Agama Sabak Bernam here today.

Also present were Education Minister Datuk Seri Mahdzir Khalid, Selangor Federal Action Council chairman Tan Sri Noh Omar and Education director-general Tan Sri Dr Khair Mohamad Yusof.

Meanwhile, Ahmad Zahid also announced the rebranding of SMK Agama Sabak Bernam, which now known as SMK Agama Tun Hajjah Rahah, as a recognition of its excellent performance in academic and co-curriculum.

The deputy prime minister also approved the application for allocation to paint six blocks of the schools, including the classes, hall and surau.

He also announced the approval for the construction of the new office building for Sabak Bernam District Education Office, which would be implemented as soon as possible.
