MANILA, July 23 (Bernama) -- Manila hopes that Malaysia will share its economic wealth with its neighbouring countries to boost regional economic growth.

This was stated by the Philippines Department of Trade and Industry Secretary, Ramon M. Lopez in a meeting with the Malaysian delegation assigned to promote the Malaysian franchise sector, led by Domestic Trade, Co-operatives and Consumerism (KPDNKK) Minister, Datuk Seri Hamzah Zainudin.

Ramon remarked that much could be learnt from Malaysia in the commerce sector as in how it has developed until reaching the 18th rank in the global index, 'Ease in Doing Business'.....
