KUALA LUMPUR, July 20 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak tonight attended the Ministry of Defence's Hari Raya Aidilfitri open house here.

He was met by Defence Minister Datuk Seri Hishammuddin Tun Hussein upon arrival at the venue at 8.50 pm.

Najib spent over 30 minutes at the function which was attended by thousands of guests.

Among those present were Second Finance Minister Datuk Johari Abdul Ghani, Minister in the Prime Minister's Department Datuk Abdul Rahman Dahlan, Deputy Defence Minister Datuk Mohd Johari Baharum and several other leaders.

Najib later proceeded to attend the Aidilfitri open house hosted by deputy president of Dewan Negara, Datuk Seri Abdul Halim Abdul Samad.

At the function, he presented donations in the form of cash and pilgrims' essential items to six participants of the Prime Minister Pilgrims special programme 2016.

A pleasant surprise awaited the prime minister when he was asked to blow candles on 'pulut kuning' or yellow sticky rice in conjunction with his birthday which was celebrated on July 23.
