KUALA LUMPUR, July 21 (Bernama) -- The 15th Tun Abdul Razak Chair, Prof Dr Jayum Jawan, based at Ohio University, will host a three-day Graduate Colloquium on Malaysian Studies in September.

The Sept 14-17 colloquium will bring together 26 graduate students currently undertaking their research leading to either Master's degree or PhD in various fields with a Malaysian focus, according to a statement from the university located in Athens, Ohio.

"The main purpose of the graduate colloquium is to provide graduate students working on Malaysian topics the opportunity to come together, exchange views and share in their research activities, along with providing the opportunity for internationalisation for their universities and global mobility," it said.....
