MUKAH (Sarawak), April 22 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi today announced a federal government allocation of RM60,000 for the maintenance and repair of the Setia Raja Mosque here.

He made the announcement before attending Friday prayers at the mosque during his one-day visit to Sarawak, said mosque committee chairman Ali Suhaili.

"On behalf of the mosque committee, I express my deepest appreciation to Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi for his approval of assistance to repair the mosque," he said in his speech to welcome Ahmad Zahid.

More than 3,000 Muslims attended Friday prayers at the mosque. The prayers were led by Mukah Division Imam Ustaz Khairi Zulkipli.
