PUTRAJAYA, June 23 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi today reminded public servants not to disseminate government secrets to outsiders as they had pledged not to do so when joining the service.

He said although there was enforcement of the law to curb the wrongdoing, public servants should impose and enforce the law on themselves.

"We have the Official Secrets Act but it's just a law, while the real enforcement must come from ourselves."

Ahmad Zahid said this at a programme on 'Imbibing Noble Values in the Month of Ramadan' and breaking-of-fast with the Prime Minister's Department and Home Ministry at Seri Satria, here.....
