PUTRAJAYA, May 23 (Bernama) -- Indonesian People's Consultative Assembly (PCA) will visit Malaysia starting tomorrow to strengthen diplomatic relations between the two countries, particularly the leadership of both nations.

In a statement, Wisma Putra said Head of Indonesian PCA Dr Zulkifli Hasan would lead a 16-member delegation comprising Deputy Heads of PCA and Fraction Leaders of Indonesian political parties to attend the three-day familiarisation visit to Malaysia organized by Malaysia Foreign Ministry.

"This visit reflects the commitment of both countries to further deepen the long-standing and close bilateral relations between Malaysia and Indonesia," the statement said.
