PUTRAJAYA, July 27 (Bernama) -- Malaysia does not have any evidence pertaining to the speculation on the involvement of Malaysia Airlines flight MH370 pilot in the murder or suicide attempt, said Transport Minister Datuk Seri Liow Tiong Lai.

When asked to comment on media reports based on "data-leaked" from Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Liow said : "As you all are aware, all the evidence brought by FBI is not given to the Malaysian team. We don't have all the evidence."

He said the investigation into the missing jetliner was still on-going.

"We let the investigation team detect whatever evidence they have," he said when met after witnessing the signing ceremony between the Malaysia Airlines and Boeing for a deal of 50 Boeing 737 MAX airplanes here today.....
