KUALA LUMPUR, June 27 (Bernama) -- Muslims must seek the blessings of Allah (God) during the last nights of Ramadan and pray to gain the blessings of the Night of Lailatul-Qadar (Night of Power), said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

He said the blessings of the Night of Lailatul-Qadar were equal to that of 1,000 months.

"Wouldn't it be great if we had worshipped and taken advantage of the blessings of the past days of fasting," he said in his latest post on his blog, NajibRazak.com.

However, he said, "if they had gone without us fully utilising them, it is not too late to worship to gain the multiple blessings of Allah during this blessed month".

He said this was especially during the last days of Ramadan when the blessings were multi-fold, and that even Prophet Muhammad performed more worship at this time.
