LAHAD DATU, May 28 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak has pointed out that the claim on Sabah by any quarters is a non-issue because the state had gained independence in Malaysia as had been decided in 1963.

He said the status of Sabah was decided by the Cobbold Commission which was recognised by the United Nations (UN).

Thus, he said, no one could dispute the status of the state in terms of international law.
