KUALA LUMPUR, May 30 (Bernama) -- Malaysia will continue to maintain close and healthy relations with its neighbours and friends with whom it trades, connects and cooperates, in efforts to sustain a strong economy, says Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

The prime minister said Malaysia was doing so regardless of political ideology of the country, while maintaining an independent, non-aligned and principled stance in regional and international affairs.

"Developing relations and economic partnership with other nations promotes peace, stability and prosperity for the people.
