KUALA LUMPUR, May 31 (Bernama) -- Children must be given equal access to opportunities to develop their talents in preparing them to cope with the future, said Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak.

He said that in today's world driven by science and technology, children must be equipped with the right skills and knowledge that would enable them to fully participate in the innovation process with competence, self-discipline, resilience and care for others.

"And they can only do it if they have the confidence to face the world.
