BANGKOK, Aug 4 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamid is confident that Terengganu UMNO leaders can maintain the state's political stability until the general election.

"The problem in Terengganu could be resolved. I hope UMNO leaders and members are not trapped into the game played by frustrated politicians who are outside UMNO," he told reporters after arriving for a two-day working visit, here today

Ahmad Zahid was scheduled to hold a meeting with Thailand's two deputy prime ministers, Wissanu Krea-ngam and Gen Prawit Wongsuwan, tomorrow.

He said opposition parties in Terengganu knew that the democratic process could only be practised via the general election and not via other means....
