KUALA LUMPUR, June 6 (Bernama) -- Prime Minister Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak hopes Allah the Almighty will accept the prayers and fast of Muslims in Malaysia during Ramadan.

"Alhamdulillah, today is our first day of fasting this year. May our prayers and fast during Ramadan be accepted by Allah SWT, Insya-Allah," said the prime minister in his Twitter and Facebook postings tonight.

In the posting and tweet, Najib also spoke of the privileges of fasting during Ramadan by quoting a hadith.
