KUALA KANGSAR, June 7 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Dr Ahmad Zahid Hamidi today went on a walkabout at the Ramadan Bazaar at Arena Square here.

He arrived at the bazaar at 5.20pm and spent about 40 minutes walking around and making purchases for the breaking of the Ramadan fast.

Ahmad Zahid was accompanied by Perak Menteri Besar Datuk Seri Dr Zambry Abd Kadir and Wan Emir Astar Wan Mohammad Khair-il Anuar, 26, and Wan Iskandar, 23, sons of the Barisan Nasional candidate Datin Mastura Mohd Yazid.

Shoppers did not pass up the opportunity to snap photographs with Ahmad Zahid.

The Deputy Prime Minister tried his hand at frying a 'roti boom'.

Yong Tau Fu trader Lela Yusof, 40, said he was excited when Ahmad Zahid bought the food at his stall.

"I thanked him for buying a large quantity of yong tau fu from my stall, about RM200 worth," said Lela who had been operating the business for 10 years.

Zainah Ahmad, 56, said she was nervous and perspiring as she attended to Ahmad Zahid who bought several dishes at her stall.

The Deputy Prime Minister then proceeded to the Al Ansar Mosque in Senggang to breakfast and to the Sayong Lembah Mosque in Sayong Lembah perform prayers.
