PUTRAJAYA, July 9 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Datuk Seri Ahmad Zahid Hamidi today warned that action would be taken against those who spread erroneous information on Daesh threats in the country.

"Such information could stir anger and fear among the public. Only the Home Ministry, Royal Malaysian Police and enforcement agencies are authorised to issue statements on any threat," he said.

He said this in a live interview on Bernama News Channel at his official residence at Sri Satria here, where he held an Aidilfitri Open House.....
