KUALA LUMPUR, Aug 11 (Bernama) -- Indonesia today gave assurance that the transboundary haze will not be as serious as last year with drastic action taken to combat forest fires in the country.

Senior Adviser on Energy to Minister of Environment and Forestry of Indonesia Arief Yuwono said Jakarta have a strong commitment to prevent forest fires from the presidential level to the ground level.

"We have a lot of initiatives at the moment and we even have presidential directive which our minister has translated to action on the ground....
