BANGKOK, Sept 12 (Bernama) -- The "inseparable" ties between Malaysia and Thailand are set to get even closer following the just-concluded sixth annual consultation of the prime ministers, Datuk Seri Najib Tun Razak of Malaysia and Gen Prayut Chan-o-cha of Thailand.

Bilateral relations between the two countries, which share common air, sea and land borders, have come a long way since diplomatic ties were established 59 years ago.

Najib, at the joint media conference with Prayut at the end of the consultation, said the future of Malaysia and Thailand, as close neighbours, was intertwined....
