ALOR SETAR, Nov 15 (Bernama) -- Academics should use letters written by the 26th Sultan of Kedah, the late Sultan Abdul Hamid Halim Shah as their main reference when writing history books on the state.

Kedah's Tunku Panglima Besar, Tan Sri Tunku Puteri Intan Safinaz Tuanku Abdul Halim Mu'adzam Shah said the country lacked history books written by local writers and the time had come for them to write history from their own viewpoints.

"As such, the book 'Surat Menyurat Sultan Abdul Hamid: Warkah Agung Warisan Dunia dan Surat-surat Sultan Abdul Hamid', is timely....
