BANGKOK, Oct 20 (Bernama) -- Deputy Prime Minister Gen Prawit Wongsuwon has admitted there is "some movement on violence-related activity" in the country but assured the public the government was aware of the matter.

Prawit, who is also defense minister, said the government had intensified its monitoring of the security situation in the country to ensure safety to the people and tourists.

"We have conducted security searches and inspections on suspicious locations following information obtained by our intelligence," he told the media after a meeting here today....
